

Cut out and join today: Take a photo with Hannah on your next flight!

Hannah the hen is on an #eggcheck mission to investigate where airlines get their eggs. Is the airline you are flying serving meals with battery cage eggs? Help Hannah in asking airlines to use cage-free eggs!

Simply cut out, fold, and take with you on your next flight. Take a selfie with Hannah and your in-flight meal and post it on Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram using #eggcheck
